

Vocabulary iLit: Unit 2.1-2.7

1. canine - the dog family of animals
ex: A wolf is considered a canine.
2. nudge- gently push something or someone ex: I felt a nudge from Shadow on the my leg.
3. computer- an electronic machine
ex: I played a game on the computer.
4. clarinet- a musical instrument
ex: Saint played a clarinet on the street to earn money.
5. technical- about a mechanical, industrial or applied science
ex: One technical school trains engineers and chemists.
6. proclaimed - saying or announcing something that you are proud of ex: "I got an A on my math test!" proclaimed Jim.
7. assume- to take for granted without proof
ex: People assume the bus would be on time.
8. transfer - change or move from one place to another
ex: I transfer my books to my backpack from my locker.
9. summoned - an official order to appear somewhere
ex: The king summoned the baker to the palace to prepare a feast.
10. annual - coming once a year
ex: The annual family reunion was a lot of fun.
11. convinced - made a person feel sure, persuaded by argument
ex: The lawyer convinced the jury the man was not guilty.
12. theme - topic or subject
ex: The theme for her bedroom was horses.
13. snarled - growled
ex: The bear snarled at the hunter.

14. abruptly - suddenly stop
ex: He heard the baby cry and abruptly ran to the child.
15. stowed - to pack or store something
ex: Kelly stowed her candy bar in her backpack.
16. match - person or thing equal to another or very similar ex: These socks match her pants.
17. predict - to tell beforehand what may happen
ex: Looking at the gray clouds, I predict it will rain soon.