

iLit Vocabulary: Unit 2- Part 4 Lessons 2.27-2.32

Vocabulary Word	Definition:
1. consoled	v. Tried to make someone feel better. EX: I consoled my sister when her cat ran away.
2. frantic	adj. feeling very worried, nervous, or afraid EX: Mother was frantic when the child hid from her at the store.
3. huddled	v. gathered closely in a group EX: The students huddled together to keep warm.
4. debris	n. the pieces that are left after something has been destroyed or broken EX: There was debris everywhere left from the storm.
5. surrender	v. to give up something EX: I will surrender my ball if you will share your jump rope.
6. trudging	v. walking with great effort EX: Jim was trudging through the mud.
7. ushered	v. led to a place EX: I ushered my cousin into a booth at the restaurant.
8. access	n. permission to enter a place EX: Tom was granted access to the tree house.
9. calculated	v. find out beforehand by any process of reasoning EX: I calculated that we would have a snow day based on the weather predictions.
10. directions	n. step by step instructions EX: It is important to follow the directions when putting together the model.
11. advised	v. give advice to EX: She advised me to turn my project in early for extra credit.

12. compared	v. how things are alike EX: I compared my bike to my friend's bike.
13. slogged	v. work hard at something, plod heavily EX: I slogged through ten chapters so I could finish my book.
14. wobble	v. move unsteadily from side to side EX: The vase began to wobble due to the earthquake.
15. appreciation	n. thankfulness EX: He gave her flowers to show his appreciation.
16. precisely	adv. exactly EX: I will close the store at precisely 5 o'clock.

Skills:

Consonant sounds: c /s/, ck, ch /k/

Antonyms: Opposite meaning

Verbs: Action Words, Helping verbs, linking verbs, verb tenses

Author's Purpose: reason why the author writes something

1. Entertain- dramatic, funny stories
2. Inform- explain something to the reader
3. Persuade- present an argument